Covid -19 Response programme

The Christian Agency for Rural Development (CARD) is a Humanitarian organisation and Social Service wing of The Mar Thoma Church. CARD was started in 1977 with the object of acting as a development agent for the poor and deprived and to alleviate their miseries. Over the years, the CARD has been able to organize fourteen Rural Development Projects and thereby enable the rural poor to strive for a better future and become self-reliant. Its headquarters is situated at Thiruvalla in Pathanamthitta district.
